My dear Madam:

If you would be willing to itemize the number of sketches of Lincoln which you have, stating at what price you value them, and also what you would be pleased to have for the entire lot, we would let you know whether or not to send them on for observation.

Very truly yours,

Louis A. Warren

Atlantic City, New Jersey

My dear Madam:

We regret sincerely that you went to the trouble to forward the sketches as I think we asked you to price them before sending, however, we are taking care of the postage and insurance for their return. I regret we would not care to acquire them.

Very truly yours,

Director
